

For Immediate Release

January 5, 2016

Contacts:

Nene Casares, President, CCWC Board of Directors
Nenecasares@ccwc-fresno.org, (559) 430-6955

Mary Stabelfeld, CCWC Conference Director
mary@ccwc-fresno.org, 209-356-1000

Central California Women's Conference invites Valley non-profits to apply for share of $70,000

The Board of Directors of the Central California Women's Conference (CCWC) is seeking non-profits serving women and children to apply for mini-grants totaling $70,000. The winners will be recognized at CCWC's Community Celebration Grant Reception on Wednesday, April 6.

The criteria for grant submission are posted on www.ccwc-fresno.org. All grant applications must be submitted by January 25. Awards will be made only to Central Valley non-profits serving women and children.

To date CCWC has donated more than $665,000 to Valley non-profits serving women and children. Funding has benefited recipients by providing an array of services ranging from mammograms to food, shelter, clothing, education and more.

Now in its 29th year, more than 84,000 women have attended the Central California Women's Conference. This year's event will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 20, 2016 at the Fresno Convention & Entertainment Center.

###

About CCWC:

The CENTRAL CALIFORNIA WOMEN'S CONFERENCE was founded in 1988 by the late State Senator Ken L. Maddy of Fresno, Calif. The conference is a 501(c) (3) nonprofit, non-political organization, and the event is designed to educate, motivate and inspire women to be the best they can be in their professional and personal lives. (Tax I.D. #77-0178140).