

May 13, 2016

For Immediate Release

Contacts:

Jan Edwards, Dir. of Marketing & Development
jedwardsmkt@gmail.com, 559-355-7602

Betsy Hays, PR & Speaker Coordinator
Betsy@ccwc-fresno.org, 559-916-6844

Central California Women's Conference and Wells Fargo to Host Scholarship Reception May 15

(Fresno, Calif.) Twenty high school students will be honored on Sunday, May 15, at 5 p.m. at Arte Americas as part of the Central California Women's Conference/Wells Fargo College and Career Preparatory Scholarship program.

The students, who were selected by their high school counselors based on need and promise, attend Central High School (East campus), Fresno High School, McLane High School, and Sanger High School. They will each receive a check for $125 on Sunday, and then an additional check for $125 in June 2017. On Tuesday, Sept. 20, they will attend and be honored at the 29th Annual Central California Women's Conference, and they will also participate in several workshops throughout the year provided by Wells Fargo's financial experts.

"Our hope is that these students' participation in the Wells Fargo workshops throughout the year will increase their financial literacy and encourage their educational ambitions," said Nené Casares, president of the CCWC Board of Directors. "This year's conference theme is #NoLimits, and we believe this scholarship, now in its 5th year, celebrates just that!"

For more information about the CCWC, visit www.ccwc-fresno.org.

###

About CCWC:

The CENTRAL CALIFORNIA WOMEN'S CONFERENCE was founded in 1988 by the late State Senator Ken L. Maddy of Fresno, Calif. The conference is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, non-political organization, and the event is designed to educate, motivate and inspire women to be the best they can be in their professional and personal lives. (Tax I.D. #77-0178140).

